WILLIAMSTOWN.

L. O. Morgan visited his parents in Richmond over Sunday.

Lewis Seaver left yesterday for New York city. His daughter Louie and Miss Hollobaugh will return with him.

Mrs. A. E. House left last evening for Moira, N. Y., to visit her brother Leon, who is in a hotel at that place.

Mrs. Helen Carleton Hobart, formerly of this town, returned to her home in Randolph today after a week's visit at the home of Wesley Seaver.

Herbert Platt was quite seriously injured yesterday. While repairing his barn a heavy iron bar was thrown suddenly out of the hand of one of the workmen, falling from the high beams and striking Mr. Platt's foot making a very ugly wound. He is as comfortable as could be expected.

Henry L. Southwick, Dean of the Emerson College of Oratory, writes: "It gives me great pleasure to speak of Mrs. Kate Eloise Terrill's work and commend it to the public. Her ability as a reader is beyond question. Her powers of expression rich and varied. She has a keen dramatic instinct which gives to her presentations great force and brilliancy. I most heartily endorse Mrs. Terrill's work." Mrs. Terrill will give a recital at the Universalist church Monday evening, Aug. 3, assisted by Miss Edith Carpenter and Miss Lulu Burnham, soloists. A pleasing program is promised.

Blood Thicker Than Water.
The saying about the superior density of blood to water is generally attributed to the American commander, Tatum, who certainly used it at the taking of the Taku forts, but Scott puts it into the mouth of Dandle Dimmont, from whom it was probably borrowed by the Yankee sailor.

Coffee.
Americans consume twelve pounds of coffee per capita in a year. Danes and Norwegians use more. England, being a tea drinking country, uses less than three quarters of a pound.

EAST BARRE.

Mrs. Beach of Barre spent yesterday in town at the home of Mrs. McArthur.

Miss Ethel Prosser has been physically unable to continue her work in Washington. She is now at the home of Mrs. A. C. Dickey.

Several of the East Barre manufacturers went to Quincy on the excursion. Among those who returned yesterday we noticed Gladys Liberson and John Sullivan.

The wild storm of Saturday evening brought disaster to Dr. Gray and his "Wonder Workers" by blowing down their tent. One effect of this was their non-appearance in our town last evening.

Friday afternoon the L. T. L. had a pleasant and profitable session at the home of Mrs. Cooney and in the evening they had an enjoyable social gathering at the home of Mrs. Cora Tucker.

We are glad to see that the family of Herb. Sargent are able to be out again. They have all recovered from diphtheria and the quarantine has been removed.

The wedding of Mand Lawson this coming Wednesday promises to be one of the social events of the season. There have been a number of invitations and efforts will be made to accept them.

A pleasant event in our town took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Meritt Cutler who, with generous hospitality, gave a birthday party for Herb. Whitcomb. The assembled guests tendered him a purse as a token of the esteem in which they held him. Refreshments were served and all went home feeling the better for their meeting together.
